

Cider and Perry

That's right. It's not just the Leeds Beer Festival. It's the Leeds Beer, Cider and Perry Festival.

And what does it mean? It means that we're spoilt rotten in Leeds. Not only do we have a huge selection of British and Global beers for you to try, we have dedicated enthusiasts of the apple and the pear who've trawled the very best spots in Britain in the hopes of tempting your taste buds.

A marvellous selection went on sale last year, and we think they've done even better for 2010.

Here's what they hope to have on the bar for you:-
